Such candidates will be debarred permanently from taking BAMS/BUMS/BHMS/BNYS Admissions in Future.

2. The apex court drew guidelines for the management of all educational institutions to follow. Among them:

Educational institutions should take anti-ragging measures right from the time of advertisement for admissions. The prospectus, the form for admission and/or any other literature issued to aspirants for admission must clearly mention that ragging is banned in the institution and anyone indulging in it is likely to be punished appropriately which may include expulsion from the institution, suspension from the institution or classes for a limited period or fine with a public apology.

The punishment may also take the shape of: (i) withholding scholarships or other benefits (ii) debarring from representation in events (iii) withholding results (iv) suspension or expulsion from hostel or mess. If there be any legislation governing ragging or any provisions in statute/ordinance, it should be brought to the notice of the students/parents seeking admissions. A printed leaflet detailing when and to whom a victim may turn for information, help and guidance for various purposes, keeping in view the needs of new entrants, along with their addresses and telephone numbers should be given to fresher at the time of admissions so that they need not look to seniors for help in such matters.

3. If, for reasons to be recorded in writing, the Admission Board suspects that a particular candidate has obtained a certificate by misrepresenting facts, the matter will be referred to the concerned D.M. On receipt of the enquiry report, the Admission Board shall take the final decision regarding the admission of the Candidate.

Salient points to be taken care of:

1. The candidate must upload his/her recent color photographs during online registration.
2. Each candidate must clearly mention the category/ Sub-category of reservation if desired by him/her.
3. The candidates of any category of Gen/SC/ST/ST-STA/OBC/MBC/Paramilitary/Defence and if applying for additional reservation as Physically Handicapped should mention this information on space provided for that and related certificate issued by the competent authority, should be provided at the time of counselling.
4. Any candidate, once allowed appearing at NEET (UG)- 2018 does not become directly eligible for admission to Ayurved, Homoeopathy and Unani and Yoga & Naturopathy courses. The eligibility of successful candidates for admission in any category (General or Reserved) shall be finally ascertained at the time of admission. The decision of the Admission Board for the eligibility shall be final.

5. A candidate shall have to deposit the complete fee of the college, where he/she is admitted in the notified time after the counselling irrespective of the token money Rs. 20000 (Twenty Thousand only) deposited to the Counselling Board at the time of counselling. Only after depositing this fee, the college shall confirm the admission. Only after the confirmation of admission the token money shall be adjusted with the college fees by the concerned college. If the admission is not confirmed, the money shall be forfeited by the Board.
6. If a candidate remains absent during any counselling he/she will be given 2nd chance only if any counselling is arranged for vacant seats after exhausting the complete merit list. All such candidates will be again called according to revised merit list.
7. Any candidate, who has deposited complete fees in the concerned college after admission in counselling, shall be eligible to transfer according to merit in any subsequent counselling. He will have to produce original fee receipt of the concerned college.
